THOUGHTS FROM FR. EMMANUEL

Friends,

The story of the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes recalls a particular aspect of the Mass. In this miracle, Jesus transforms a young boy's offering of five barley loaves and two fish. In the offertory at Mass, we present the fruits of our labors, represented by bread and wine. These gifts, given to us first by God as grain and fruit, are returned to God in our offering of thanksgiving. God in turn transforms our gifts, making this bread and wine the very Body and Blood of Jesus. We also offer ourselves in this exchange, and we, too, are transformed by the Eucharist.

May I suggest to you to offer yourself entirely to God at every mass, specially at the offertory time, so transformed by God's grace we can go back to the world and share the blessings given to us at the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist.

In Christ,

Fr Emmanuel Lopez

PENSAMIENTOS DEL P. EMMANUEL

Amigos,

La historia de la multiplicación de los panes y los peces recuerda un aspecto particular de la Misa. En este milagro, Jesús transforma la ofrenda de un niño de cinco panes de cebada y dos peces. En el ofertorio de la Misa, presentamos los frutos de nuestro trabajo, representados por el pan y el vino. Estos dones, dados a nosotros primero por Dios como grano y fruto, son devueltos a Dios en nuestra ofrenda de acción de gracias. Dios, a su vez, transforma nuestros dones, haciendo de este pan y vino el mismo Cuerpo y Sangre de Jesús. También nosotros nos ofrecemos a nosotros mismos en este intercambio, y también nosotros somos transformados por la Eucaristía.

Permítanme sugerirles que se ofrezcan completamente a Dios en cada misa, especialmente en el tiempo del ofertorio, para que transformados por la gracia de Dios podamos volver al mundo y compartir las bendiciones que se nos dan en el santo sacrificio de la Eucaristía.

En Cristo,

P. Emmanuel López

- Strategies to answer difficult pro-abortion arguments.

Our guest speaker is Samuel Green, President & General Counsel of Reason for Life, a non-profit Christian ministry working to end abortion in America.
