THOUGHTS FROM FR. EMMANUEL

Friends,

Jesus' words on the Second Sunday of Easter should bolster our faith: “Blessed are those who have not seen but have believed.” We must act with faith. We must fulfill our apostolic mission to go out and live the GOoD News that Jesus has died and is risen. We must be people of Shalom—announcing the message that Jesus continues to manifest – the healed relationship between GOD and mortals that He established through His death and resurrection.

Today is also called “Divine Mercy Sunday.” Mercy in Hebrew is rachamim. It refers to the quality a woman has for the child in her womb or for the child who came from her womb. Jesus and GOD the Abba-Father has even more love and mercy (rachamim) for each of us, since we are children of GOD.

We are to be the apostles of the Risen Lord to the people with whom we come in contact each and every day. People must experience the presence of the Lord Jesus as we touch their lives. We must live out our baptismal calling to preach the GOoD News to others. We can do this by being instruments of GOD's Shalom. That may involve speaking challenging words of truth (as John does in the Book of Revelation), but always with the love of the Lord Jesus. We must seek to further the Shalom that Jesus created through His death and resurrection.

If we can do this, we may become other stones rejected by some builders, but we will be joined to the cornerstone of Jesus. We will experience the enthusiasm that comes from knowing that we are making every day a celebration of Easter Shalom. We will be able to say and experience each day, the verse in today's Responsorial: “This is the day that the LORD has made. Let us be glad and rejoice in it.”

In Christ,

Fr Emmanuel Lopez

PENSAMIENTOS DEL P. EMMANUEL

Amigos

Las palabras de Jesús en el segundo domingo de Pascua deberían reforzar nuestra fe: "Bienaventurados los que no han visto, pero han creído". Debemos actuar con fe. Debemos cumplir nuestra misión apostólica de salir y vivir la noticia de que Jesús ha muerto y ha resucitado. Debemos ser gente de Shalom, anunciando el mensaje que Jesús continúa manifestando, la relación sanada entre DIOS y los mortales que Él estableció a través de Su muerte y resurrección.

Hoy también se llama "Domingo de la Divina Misericordia". La misericordia en hebreo es rachamim. Se refiere a la cualidad que una mujer tiene para el niño en su vientre o para el niño que salió de su vientre. Jesús y DIOS el Abba-Padre tiene aún más amor y misericordia (rachamim) por cada uno de nosotros, ya que somos hijos de DIOS.

Debemos ser los apóstoles del Señor resucitado para las personas con las que entramos en contacto todos los días. Las personas deben experimentar la presencia del Señor Jesús cuando tocamos sus vidas. Debemos vivir nuestro llamado bautismal para predicar las Noticias de Dios a los demás. Podemos hacer esto siendo instrumentos del Shalom de DIOS. Eso puede implicar hablar palabras desafiantes de verdad (como lo hace Juan en el libro de Apocalipsis), pero siempre con el amor del Señor Jesús. Debemos tratar de promover el Shalom que Jesús creó a través de Su muerte y resurrección.

Si podemos hacer esto, podemos convertirnos en otras piedras rechazadas por algunos constructores, pero estaremos unidos a la piedra angular de Jesús. Experimentaremos el entusiasmo que proviene de saber que estamos haciendo de cada día una celebración de Pascua Shalom. Podremos decir y vivir cada día, el versículo del Responsorial de hoy: "Este es el día que hizo el Señor. Alegrémonos y gocijémonos en ello".

En Cristo,

P. Emmanuel López
