MEMORIAL DAY

Please plan to join us for a special Mass on Memorial Day, Monday, May 31st, at 9:00am. This is a traditional time to remember those who have died in service to our country and to also lift up in prayer all our deceased loved ones. Please gather with us in prayer.

The Parish Office and School Office will be closed Monday, May 31st, in observance of Memorial Day. Have a safe and wonderful holiday weekend!

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

Thank you for your generous support in last week's Peter's Pence Collection! Our contributions will be combined with those from our brothers and sisters around the world to help Pope Francis provide essential relief to people in need. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give, visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections, and click on the "How to Give" link.

ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

In today's Gospel and in the reading from the letter of St. Paul we hear of the gift of the Triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In our devotional life we make the sign of the cross and recite the "Glory Be" as an expression of our faith as a Trinitarian people. But what does it mean for Christian stewards to accept in a practical way the experience of God in this three-fold gift? Is it not a call to share our own life in community, with compassion and love, and to work for healing, justice, peace and unity? Is it not an invitation to invite others into fellowship with us in the unity of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

En el Evangelio de hoy y en la lectura de la carta de San Pablo escuchamos acerca del don de Dios Trino, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. En nuestra vida devocional hacemos el signo de la cruz y recitamos el "Gloria" como expresión de nuestra fe como un pueblo Trinitario. Pero, ¿qué significa para los corresponsables cristianos aceptar de una manera práctica la experiencia de Dios en este triple don? ¿No es un llamado a compartir nuestra propia vida en comunidad, con compasión y amor, y a trabajar por la sanación, la justicia, la paz y la unidad? ¿No es una invitación a invitar a otros a unirse en camaradería con nosotros en la unidad del Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo? SUMMER GIVING

This summer may offer a chance to renew our quest for fun and relaxation in a way that the pandemic, the economy and closures would not allow last summer. Let us be mindful of our parishes, diocesan ministries and other charities that are in need of our support. A plan to continue our generous habits this summer can serve as a great blessing to those in need and serve as an authentic witness to the renewal of our Baptismal promises at Easter.

DIACONATE FORMATION

Have you ever considered a new way to serve the church? Has the Holy Spirit touched your heart to consider a vocation as a deacon? TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Even though the Easter season has drawn to a close, today's feast still basks in the glow of Easter's twilight. To believe that we are made in the image and likeness of God—a God whose inner life is described in terms of community—is to recognize that we are in relationship with one another. In the language of the liturgy, we do not each stand alone before God, but constantly affirm this truth in the very words of our prayers. "We believe, we offer, we ask you," we say, or "have mercy on us, hear us, listen to our prayer," and in preparation for Communion, we pray the perfect prayer to "Our Father."

To be baptized is to enter into the life of a community of faith. Nowhere is this sense of community more focused than at Sunday Mass, when we respond to the love of the Father by being together in Christ, embraced by the Spirit, for the sake of the world. Today has been called an "idea feast," and impossible to grasp fully. Yet, as the readings today explore, the Trinity is not a concept traced like a triangle on a blackboard. It is the air we breathe, the sign we trace on our bodies as a pledge and promise of God's love. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
