Join us for Adoration and Confessions every Wednesday 6:00-7:00pm.

ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

In today's Gospel we witness the last evening Jesus spends with his disciples before his death. He has already made it clear that his followers will show their love for him by serving others. To live that kind of love, they will need the active presence of God in their midst. Jesus tells his disciples that he and his Father will come and make their home with them. He also tells them that the Holy Spirit will be among them to teach them and remind them of all that Jesus had taught. Good stewards recognize that God is in their midst and that the Holy Spirit is guiding them. How often do we acknowledge God's presence in our lives? How often do we allow the Holy Spirit to guide us?

En el Evangelio de hoy somos testigos de la última noche que Jesús pasa con sus discípulos antes de su muerte. Él ya ha dejado claro que sus seguidores mostrarán su amor por él en el servicio a otros. Para vivir este tipo de amor, ellos necesitarán la presencia activa de Dios en medio de ellos. Jesús dice a sus discípulos que Él y su Padre vendrán y habitarán entre ellos. Les dice también que el Espíritu Santo estará entre ellos para enseñarles y recordarles todo lo que Jesús había enseñado. Los buenos corresponsables reconocen que Dios está en medio de ellos y que el Espíritu Santo les guía. ¿Con qué frecuencia reconocemos la presencia de Dios en nuestras vidas? ¿Con qué frecuencia permitimos que el Espíritu Santo nos guíe? TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Why is it still Easter? The lilies have long since faded. The roots of our tradition of fifty days of rejoicing from Easter to Pentecost lie in the seven-day rhythm of the Jewish week, drawn from the six days of creation plus a Sabbath day. A favorite name for the Lord's Day among our ancestors in the faith was "The Eighth Day," meaning that in Christ a breakthrough to a new humanity was achieved. With that inner architecture, it makes sense to see Pentecost as a week of weeks, forty-nine days plus one, again signaling that a new age has begun in Christ and the outpouring of his Spirit. The Jewish appreciation for Pentecost gave rise to the Jubilee year, the fiftieth year, when debts were released and prisoners set free. Today, the character of our Easter Sundays is conveyed by joyful Alleluias and the rite of sprinkling at Mass. Long ago, people expressed this joy by suspending all rules of fasting and by never kneeling at liturgy.

These customs all point to our conviction that time is holy. There is an elegant balance to the Christian year: forty days of Lenten fast and discipline give way to fifty days of unrestrained rejoicing. That's why it is still Easter! —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

Month 9: Congratulations, I am here! As you know though, my birth was not the beginning of my life. My life began nine months ago when my parents contributed their love to each other to form this unique human being. At that miraculous moment I also received my soul from God making me an immortal being. God's plan for me is to live my life on earth then join Him in my heavenly home forever. Thank you on behalf of all babies and their mothers for you loving prayers that helped to bring us to birth "so that they might have life and have it to the full!" John 10:10
