ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

In the first reading, from Acts, we see the creative genius of the Holy Spirit moving through the newly confirmed Apostles “who began to speak in different tongues as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.” The large crowd, gathered from all over the world were “amazed” and “astounded” that each one could understand the Apostles speaking in their own language.

Each one of us, young and old alike, is personally called today by the Holy Spirit into the same mission as that of the first Apostles — to advance the Kingdom of God in our corner of the world. Just as He did on that Pentecost day, the Holy Spirit speaks to us in our “own language” to give us the Good News of the Gospel and urge us to share it. We can think of our own language as the particular gifts, talents and passions we possess. We experience the presence of the Holy Spirit through them and we are meant put them to the work in grateful service of the Kingdom of God

WELCOME SEMINARIAN SAM HORAN

Thank you all for welcoming me to St. Regis parish. My name is Samuel Horan, though most people just call me Sam.

I was born and raised in the Kansas City area and I have attended Our Lady of Good Counsel for as long as I can recall. I was blest to be homeschooled all the way through high school. I have just graduated from St. Gregory the Great Seminary in Seward, NE. I will enter Kenrick-Glennon Seminary for my final years of seminary this coming August.

I did not at first want to heed God's call to enter seminary. I thought I was called to be a doctor. However, with some help from my mother and father, I decided to speak with the Vocation Director. He allayed many of my fears of seminary, and in doing so, helped me to be open to God's call.

I have been so inexpressibly blest in my time at the seminary. I enjoyed my studies and have made many friends. I cannot express my appreciation for everything which the people of our diocese do to support me and my brother seminarians. I am grateful for the opportunity of giving back to the faithful by serving here at St. Regis for the summer! I look forward to meeting all of our parishioners in the upcoming weeks!

God bless all of you and please be assured of my prayers for you!

—Seminarian Sam Horan
