FEED YOUR FAITH

There are only 3 more weeks of Jeff Cavin's Bible Timeline. Feed Your Faith will meet in the Parish Hall tomorrow night, July 11, for Session 21: The Church – Part 1 (The Acts of the Apostles). We meet at 5:45 p.m. for dinner together in the Parish Hall, and connect with those at home via Zoom at 6:00 p.m.. We say prayers, then begin watching the DVD at 6:30 p.m.

The next 2, and final weeks of The Bible Timeline series will be on-line only because The St. Regis' Bible Museum will be in the Parish Hall the next 2 weeks. We encourage everyone to attend the Museum Exhibit. After studying The Bible Timeline all year, this marvelous exhibit should really come alive for us. If you are not regularly receiving FYF e-mails, send an e-mail to conniemariewood@yahoo.com requesting an e-vite -- we don't want you to miss the final chapters of the New Testament.

ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Today's Gospel turns our attention to one of Jesus' most familiar stories, the Parable of the Good Samaritan. It is about living how God intended us to live: to acknowledge God's divine love and compassion lavished upon us, and to extend that love and compassion upon others without reservation. We can find a lot of reasons for not stopping to help someone. We can talk ourselves out of being Good Samaritans. Strangers are not our responsibility, or are they? Good stewards understand that God's mercy is a gift that must be shared, and that doing the right thing, acting as Jesus would act toward others, is the only course of action for one who lives according to the demands of the Gospel. How might you be a Good Samaritan this week?

El Evangelio de hoy dirige nuestra atención a una de las historias de Jesús más conocidas, la Parábola del Buen Samaritano. Trata acerca de vivir de la manera que Dios planeó para nosotros que viviéramos: de reconocer el divino amor y la compasión de Dios vertidos sobre nosotros, y de extender ese amor y compasión sobre otros, sin reserva. Nosotros podemos encontrar muchas razones para no detenernos a ayudar a alguien. Podemos disuadirnos a nosotros mismos de ser Buenos Samaritanos. Engañarnos a nosotros mismos, pensando, los extraños no son nuestra responsabilidad, ¿o acaso lo son? Los buenos corresponsables comprenden que la compasión de Dios es un don que debe ser compartido, y que hacer lo correcto, actuar hacia otros como Jesús lo haría, es el único curso de acción para quien vive de acuerdo a los mandatos del Evangelio. ¿Cómo podría usted ser un Buen Samaritano esta semana?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the “baptism of the bells,” recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell’s voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There’s no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!
