SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

Month 1: I have been very active the past month. I am 10,000 times larger than I was at conception. My eyes and nose are starting to form and I already have arm buds and leg buds. I have the building blocks for my brain, spinal cord, and nervous system. My heart is now pumping blood through my own circulatory system and my blood type may already be different from my mother's. Thank you for the prayers that the Lord of Life might help her give me the most precious gift of all - the gift of life.

ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

In Jesus' parable of the Unjust Steward, we encounter financial manager who has wasted his master's wealth and face dismissal from his position. To overcome the crisis confronting him, the steward reduces some very considerable debts owed by poor neighbors to his master in order to help them out. Though the steward has sinned against God and his master by squandering what belongs to someone else, both the prudent way in which he goes about resolving the crisis coupled with relieving people who are in need can be seen as a way to better steward the gifts entrusted to us by God. Although good stewards today acknowledge that they may never use their God-given gifts in a way that completely conforms to the demands of the Gospel, a commitment to using their gifts with prudence and for the purpose of helping their neighbors wins God's favor.

En la parábola de Jesús del Administrador Injusto, encontramos a un administrador que ha derrochado la riqueza de su patrón y enfrenta el despido de su posición. Para superar la crisis que le confronta, el administrador reduce algunas deudas muy considerables que algunos de los vecinos pobres deben a su patrón, para ayudarles a saldar la deuda. Aunque el administrador ha pecado contra Dios y contra su patrón derrochando lo que pertenece a alguien más, la manera prudente en la que él va resolviendo la crisis y al mismo tiempo aliviando a la gente en necesidad, puede verse como una manera de administrar mejor los dones confiados a nosotros por Dios. Aunque los buenos corresponsables de hoy reconocen que tal vez nunca usen sus dones dados por Dios en una manera que se conforme totalmente a las demandas del Evangelio, el compromiso de usar sus dones con prudencia y con el propósito de ayudar a su prójimo conquista el favor de Dios.

Emmanuel Lopez and other priests who have served our parish. Consider sending Fr. Emmanuel Lopez a note or card of appreciation for his dedication and leadership for our parish. ¿QUE ES EL "DOMINGO DEL SACERDOCIO"?
El Domingo del Sacerdocio es un día especial reservado para honrar el sacerdocio en los Estados Unidos. Es un día para reflexionar y afirmar el papel del sacerdocio en la vida de la Iglesia como uno central. El 25 de septiembre, se anima a los feligreses a ofrecer una oración de acción de gracias y ofrecer apoyo a nuestro pastor P. Emmanuel López y otros sacerdotes que han servido a nuestra parroquia. Considere enviar al P. Emmanuel López una nota o tarjeta de agradecimiento por su dedicación y liderazgo para nuestra parroquia. El Domingo del Sacerdocio se estableció en 2001 para honrar el sacerdocio en la Iglesia y reconocer a aquellos que son llamados a esta vida de servicio.

5 Action Steps for Helping Someone in Emotional Pain

Suicide is a major public health concern and a leading cause of death in the United States. Suicide affects people of all ages, genders, races, and ethnicities. Suicide is complicated and tragic, but it can be preventable. Knowing the warning signs for suicide and how to get help can help save lives.

Here are 5 steps you can take to #BeThe1To help someone in emotional pain:

- 1. ASK:
"Are you thinking about killing yourself?" It's not an easy question but studies show that asking at-risk individuals if they are suicidal does not increase suicides or suicidal thoughts.
- 2. KEEP THEM SAFE:
Reducing a suicidal person's access to highly lethal items or places is an important part of suicide prevention. While this is not always easy, asking if the at-risk person has a plan and removing or disabling the lethal means can make a difference.
- 3. BE THERE:
Listen carefully and learn what the individual is thinking and feeling. Research suggests acknowledging and talking about suicide may in fact reduce rather than increase suicidal thoughts.
- 4. HELP THEM CONNECT:
Save the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline number (call or text 988) and the Crisis Text Line number (74741) in your phone so they're there if you need them. You can also help make a connection with a trusted individual like a family member, friend, spiritual advisor, or mental health professional.
- 5. STAY CONNECTED:
Staying in touch after a crisis or after being discharged from care can make a difference. Studies have shown the number of suicide deaths goes down when someone follows up with the at-risk person.

5 medidas que puede tomar para ayudar a una persona con dolor emocional

El suicidio es un problema importante de salud pública y una de las principales causas de muerte en los Estados Unidos. El suicidio afecta a personas de todas las edades, géneros, razas y etnias. El suicidio es complicado y trágico, pero puede evitarse. Saber cuáles son las señales de advertencia del suicidio y dónde obtener ayuda puede servir para salvar vidas.

A continuación, planteamos 5 medidas que puede seguir para ayudar a una persona con dolor emocional:

- 1. PREGUNTE:
"¿Estás pensando en suicidarte?" No es una pregunta fácil de hacer, pero los estudios muestran que preguntar a las personas en riesgo si tienen pensamientos o deseos de morir o de matarse no aumenta los suicidios ni los pensamientos suicidas.
- 2. MANTÉNGALA A SALVO:
Reducir el acceso de la persona suicida a ciertos objetos o lugares sumamente letales es parte esencial de la prevención del suicidio. Si bien hacer esto no es fácil, preguntarle a la persona en riesgo si tiene algún plan y desactivar o eliminar cualquier medio letal puede marcar la diferencia.
- 3. ESTÉ PRESENTE:
Escuche atentamente para enterarse de lo que la persona en riesgo está pensando y sintiendo. De hecho, las Investigaciones sugieren que reconocer y hablar sobre el suicidio puede reducir los pensamientos suicidas en lugar de aumentarlos.
- 4. AYÚDELA A ESTABLECER UNA CONEXIÓN:
Guarda el número de la Red Nacional de Prevención del Suicidio (1-888-628-9545) y la línea de crisis para mensajes de texto (74741) en su teléfono celular para que lo tenga a mano cuando lo necesite. Usted también puede ayudar a la persona suicida a establecer una conexión con una persona de confianza, como un miembro de la familia, un amigo, un asesor espiritual o un profesional de la salud mental.
- 5. MANTÉNGASE COMUNICADO:
Manténgase en contacto con la persona después de que tuvo una crisis o después de haber sido dada de alta de su tratamiento puede marcar la diferencia. Los estudios han demostrado que el número de muertes por suicidio disminuye cuando alguien da seguimiento con la persona en riesgo.
