ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

In today's second reading, Saint Paul makes a list of gifts dispensed to members of the Christian community by the Holy Spirit. Each gift bestowed has a specific purpose for the person for whom it is intended: wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, mighty deeds, prophecy, discernment, tongues, and interpretation. Good stewards know these gifts are not meant to be kept hidden by the recipient but to be shared with the community and beyond. As we begin a new year, let us reflect on the gift the Holy Spirit has given to each of us. Do we recognize this gift? How was it intended that we use this gift? Are we being good stewards of this gift?

THANK YOU

A special thank you to all those who helped make our Christmas Masses a beautiful expression of worship. We are blessed by so many generous people who share their gifts and talents. We are grateful for all the musicians and singers from the 4:30pm Children/Youth Choir directed by Susan Duerr, the Choirs at the 7:30pm Mass and the 10:30am Mass directed by Diane Banks. We also had a committed group of volunteers who decorated the Church. Under the guidance of the Art and Environment Committee Christmas came to life at St. Regis. These dedicated people help make St. Regis a great parish.

If your interested in taking the class or want more information, leave your name, email and phone number on the signup sheet in the Gathering Space or let at the office now.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

Find more information at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

Month 5: Half-way there and just over one pound! If born today, I would have a chance of surviving...with lots of help, of course. Your prayers have helped my mother with her pregnancy and helped her seek the support she needed the past few months since she learned about me.

"See now that I myself am He! There is no god besides me. I put to death and I bring to life, I have wounded and I will heal, and no one can deliver out of my hand" Deuteronomy 32:39

The Art and Environment Committee is grateful to those who made donations to the flower fund for the Christmas season.
Please remember their friends and relatives in prayer.
