Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PRESENTATION ON CATHOLIC LITERATURE

Is there such a thing as Catholic culture? Can works of art and literature be labeled Catholic? If so, what does it mean to be a Catholic novel or a Catholic poem? And who are these Catholic writers? Join Rick Janet as he introduces well-known, and some lesser-known, Catholic writers and explores the Catholic aspects of their work. If you are not familiar with the likes of John Donne, Robert Southwell and Christopher Beha, then you will want to attend. If you are familiar with these writer, then, of course, you will attend! Mr. Janet received his doctorate in modern European history from the University of Notre Dame before starting his career as a professor at Rockhurst University in 1985. Presentations will be in Mary's room after Masses the weekend of February 9, 10 and then continuing on Tuesday evenings February 12 and 19 at 7pm. Presentations are free of charge.

ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

In the first reading from the prophet Isaiah we get a glimpse of a model for Christian stewards to follow. Within the temple, God's voice shakes the foundations and causes the natural world to shake and tremble. The Lord asks: "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah replies to the call of God for service with immediacy and enthusiasm: "Here I am, send me!" There is no hesitation. There are no excuses, contingencies, or "what-ifs." Good stewards know that responding to the Lord's call to serve is never easy, never simple to grasp, never designed for ready comfort and success. But the call needs a response. What about us? What does it take to shake us into an enthusiastic response? To say to God: "Here I am, Lord. Send me!"

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION

Month 6: At 1 1/2 to 2 pounds and 12 inches long, I am twice as big as I was last month. I am sitting up most of the time to accommodate the final movement of all my internal organs. From 26 weeks, babies exhibit a whole range of typical baby behavior and moods, including scratching, smiling, crying, hiccupping, and sucking. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. Please don't forget to pray for my mother and me.
