FEED YOUR FAITH

Tomorrow night, November 11, is also Veterans Day; it is fitting we show a movie about a different kind of war hero – a Cardinal, the Primate of Poland during the Nazi invasion of Poland – Blessed Cardinal Stefan Wyszynski. Join us in the MEC building at 5:30 for dinner, Prayers to the Sacred Heart of Jesus at 6:00, then watch this inspiring documentary about the incredible man that God raised up at the exact moment in time to be a hero of courage and faith when his country needed him. Join us for Thou Shalt Love: The Primate of Poland, Cardinal Stephen Wyszynski. Our dinner is free for Veterans too!

THOUGHTS FROM FR. EMMANUEL

Friends,

In this Sunday Gospel, Jesus points our attention towards—and wants us to imitate—this “poor widow” giving “from her poverty”. That’s easier said than done. But there are at least two ways to make this easier. The first is a virtue to be cultivated, and the second is a practice to be followed.

First is the virtue of trust: specifically, putting one’s trust in God. The virtue of putting trust in God first means acknowledging that God is your providential Father. God has made you for Himself, and you can only reach Him in Heaven by surrendering each day to the One who is your providential Father.

What practice, then, might help us concretely to give like the “poor widow”? It’s the practice of giving “first fruits”. Giving God one’s first fruits is rooted in Sacred Scripture. We are called to love in action or to practice charity towards our beloved ones, the Church, and those outside our circles, especially the poor, the suffering and the stranger.

Finally, we have begun with the removal of the old playground and the new one is coming up soon. Thanks to all of you who contributed to this project.

In Christ,

Fr. Emmanuel Lopez

WHAT PLANNED GIVING OPTION IS BEST FOR YOU?

PENSAMIENTOS DEL P. EMMANUEL

Amigos

En este Evangelio dominical, Jesús dirige nuestra atención hacia esta "viuda pobre" que da "de su pobreza" y quiere que la imitemos. Es más fácil decirlo que hacerlo. Pero hay al menos dos maneras de hacer esto más fácil. La primera es una virtud que hay que cultivar, y la segunda es una práctica que hay que seguir.

En primer lugar, la virtud de la confianza: en concreto, poner la confianza en Dios. La virtud de poner la confianza en Dios primero significa reconocer que Dios es tu Padre providencial. Dios te ha hecho para Sí mismo, y solo puedes alcanzarlo en el Cielo si te rindes cada día a Aquel que es tu Padre providencial.

¿Qué práctica, entonces, podría ayudarnos concretamente a dar como la "viuda pobre"? Es la práctica de dar "primicias". Dar a Dios las primicias está enraizado en la Sagrada Escritura. Estamos llamados a amar en acción o a practicar la caridad hacia nuestros seres queridos, la Iglesia y los que están fuera de nuestros círculos, especialmente los pobres, los que sufren y los extranjeros.

Por último, hemos comenzado con la retirada del antiguo parque infantil y pronto se construirá el nuevo. Gracias a todos los que contribuiste a este proyecto.

En Cristo,

P. Emmanuel López
