ST. REGIS STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Today's reading from the Gospel of Luke offers us the first words of Jesus as he begins his public ministry. The words reflect his understanding of his Spirit-anointed mission. His words are his "Mission Statement." Good stewards rejoice in being followers of Jesus. They realize that Jesus' commission is their commission as well. They embrace it and adopt it as their own. We, too, have "glad tidings" to bring to a suffering world. This year, how will we fulfill Christ's commission in the world in which he has placed us, using the gifts he has entrusted to us?

THANK YOU

I want to express my appreciation for all the prayers and well wishes this past year while I dealt with the two cancer issues. In October, I had a 6 month check up with my lung cancer physician and tests reveal no further cancer issues. Checks will be done each 6 months for a couple of years. This past week, my Urologist said the radiation treatments did its job and my PSA is now zero. We will continue to check every 3 months for a year or so. For me, our success is related to the power of prayer for healing and guidance for medical teams from fellow parishioners, friends, and family. I thank each and every one of you. My thanks and many blessings for all your prayers for the gift of healing.

FAMILY SPOTLIGHT

Meet the Cambridge Family—

St. Regis Academy is a school made up of love, which always keeps serving God at the forefront. St. Regis Academy has made a positive impact in the life of our son Jabari. Jabari has excelled not only academically, but has made great strides thru athletics and the arts! We have truly seen the growth of Jabari excelling spiritually and academically! The staff engages the students to be excited everyday to learn spiritually and to grow their God given talents! The benefits of our son receiving a Classical Education, has given Jabari the ability to advance his critical thinking and problem solving skills in a more artistic and collaborative way. Jabari receiving a Catholic education is important to us because we know that everyday he is connected to spirit filled staff members that are willing and able to dedicate their time ensuring that not only Jabari but that each and every student will reach their fullest potential!
